

Name _____ Grade _____

Teacher _____ School _____

1. The area of ground where you build your project is called a:
  - a. compression
  - b. site
  - c. section
2. Forces like the weight of snow that work against structures are called:
  - a. loads
  - b. wiring
  - c. construction
3. Our man-made surroundings are called:
  - a. nature
  - b. the built environment
  - c. pollution

4. Choose the image that shows an elevation:

5. Circle the image that does NOT represent compression:

6. The amount of money you can spend on your building is called the:
  - a. budget
  - b. schedule
  - c. change orders

7. What jobs are needed to construct a building?

---

---

8. What is your definition of architecture?

---

---

---

9. What are you excited to learn in Design LAB this year?

---

---

---